Liturgy of the Word

1st READING: *The Book of Wisdom 3: 1-6, 9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace.

For if to others, indeed, they seem punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.

Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with the elect.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: *Shepherd Me, O God

©1986 Marty Haugen, GIA Publications

Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: *John 17:24-26

I wish that where I am they also may be with me.

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said: "Father, those whom you gave me are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
